Seven New Members Elected to El Segundo Educational Foundation's Board of Directors in 2001

EL SEGUNDO, Calif., - January 28, 2002 – Seven corporate and community representatives were elected during 2001 to serve on the Board of Directors of the El Segundo Educational Foundation. New board members include Dr. William Watkins, recently retired Superintendent of Schools; Mike Gordon, Mayor of El Segundo; Kev Toumaian of Definity Marketing LLC; Ernest Soczka, General Manager of Dynegy/NRG of El Segundo; Edward Myska, Senior Vice President of the El Segundo branch of First Coastal Bank; Richard Croxall, Vice President and Chief Engineer of TRW Space & Electronics Group in Redondo Beach and former ESUSD school board member; and resident Carlene Tanaka, community representative. The new members bring to 38 the total number of people serving on the Foundation's board of directors.

The El Segundo Educational Foundation was established as a non-profit public benefit corporation in 1983 to provide financial support as a supplement to the resources available to the El Segundo Unified School District. The Foundation raises money by organizing annual events, golf tournaments, and direct mail campaigns. The Board of Directors of the Foundation, comprised of local business representatives, residents, and school district alumni, meet bimonthly and are elected for three-year terms. For more information about the Foundation call 310-615-2650, extension 229.
